Dear Bob:

I have never received a full published copy of the Spring 2011 JEA. Did you get one? Was your request by Email? I think they should be reminded again and thank them again for their kind remarks about our published article.

Hi Eric.

I did e-mail them about sending you a copy of the spring issue and they said they would. I'll remind them with another e-mail this afternoon.

Hope all's well with you.

Best wishes - Bob

Dear Eric,
Here is the reply I received from the Journal of the Early Republic. Perhaps it is best if you communicate directly with them about your copy of the spring issue.

Best wishes - Bob

Dear Kate,
I just had an e-mail from Eric Newman saying he never received a copy of the spring issue of the JER with the editorial about our Audubon paper. Would you still have a copy available to send him? Many thanks. - Bob

As you were advised a full copy of the Spring 2011 Journal of the Early Republic was not received by me and you were kind enough to offer to send me another copy. The address was correct. I would appreciate it if you try again. Thanks
